

FROM THE MANAGER

Our Fund delivered a positive return of +1,5% over the past month, just ahead of the outbreak of the Iranian conflict.

Equity markets continued to move higher in February, with valuations on the rise. We reduced our equity exposure accordingly, and as it turns out the timing was fortunate. At the time of writing, market falls remain limited.

In this context, our fixed-income investments remain the most resilient bets.

Our exposure to gold and commodities (including oil & gas) provides a good hedge for our Fund.

We are very much focused on the situation at hand. We will not hesitate to reduce risk if conditions deteriorate, and will deploy capital if the right opportunity arises.
